NEW MUSIC DECANTED

Dear Patron of the Arts,

You have our heartfelt gratitude for your interest in joining us to celebrate the life and work of Kaija Saariaho. Her loss in 2023 was devastating for the arts and has reverberated around the world and the Bay Area. It is fitting that New Music Decanted's first festival should be a retrospective of this icon of new music.

New Music Decanted has performed more than 100 works of new classical music since it was founded in 2018. Nine of our concerts featured Saariaho and it's no wonder why: she had a unique and transcendent voice, a testament to beauty and to sound itself.

As a tribute to her legacy, New Music Decanted, a federal 501(c)(3) organization, has assembled 30 incredible performers from across the world to present Saariaho's complete chamber music. Hearing them all - 42 pieces of music - over six concerts is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. To enrich the experience and deepen appreciation for her remarkable craftsmanship there will be lectures, conversations, and panels with the artists and those who knew her well.

As an added feature, we will partner with renowned wineries, restaurants, and the Culinary Institute of America at Copia to create a true festival weekend. There will be ample time to take in downtown Napa (where the concerts will occur) and enjoy the world-class experiences that it offers. It will be an unforgettable 3-day experience.

Mounting a festival of this scale is a large and audacious goal, but we are up to the task. And while this is our first festival, we are not on our own - we are partnering with our friends at the Ojai Festival (est. 1947), as well as numerous new music ensembles from across California to help make our inaugural event the highest caliber.

But we can't do it without your help, and we are asking for your support to ensure that this inaugural festival is just the beginning of an annual tradition. If you share our passion for celebrating new classical music, we ask you to stand alongside us.

Please look at the following detailed donor information and consider giving generously if you are able. Your contribution will help bring world-renowned musicians to celebrate Kaija Saariaho's legacy; it will also inspire others to join us on this journey.

Thank you for your interest. Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions.

Sincerely,

Eric Moore | Executive Director
